- Sweden: Anna Jerndorf elected by a show of hands
(the current board member Paula Hogéus has resigned due to a change in job)

III. Report on ongoing activities

The Chair Claire Toumieux presented the activities of the Board, the new Chair and the Vice Chair.

Main decisions:

- New website
- Cooperation with Planet Labor (News alerts)
- Changes to Annex A (membership)
- New Conference Protocol

IV. Membership fees 2016

The General Assembly approved the reduction of the membership fee to EUR 80 per annum. The reduction was proposed by the Board because of the end of the cooperation with EELC which had been the reason for the increase in the fee. Instead of co-financing the EELC's publication, EELA will now use Planet Labor to provide news from the field of employment law. The costs of cooperating with Planet Labor make it possible to decrease the fee.

V. Any other issues

The General Assembly approved the 2015 accounts.

VI. Closing

Claire Toumieux closed the General Assembly.
